In Memoriam

WILLIAM H. BURNETT, JR.

THAT HE MAY LIVE

We, the brothers of William H. Burnett, Jr., known affectionately as "Gork" or "Horky," dedicate this to the memory of our departed brother. "Gork" leaves a fine record at the college on the hill. He was on the wrestling team for two years, and he placed in a two way tie for the "Outstanding Freshman" honors for his achievements. True and loyal to his friends and brothers, he will long be remembered, and until we meet again and stand together in brotherhood, we will sing,

One in devotion, One in desire, . . .

and we will say,
Our Father,

Which are in Heaven, . . .

NURSES

For several years the Fairmont General Hospital School of Nursing has maintained an affiliation with Fairmont State College. Presently, first year students of the School of Nursing complete two semesters at the college — a major part of the preclinical program. The subjects studied include biology, English, nutrition, physical science, psychology, and sociology. This curriculum is designed to contribute effectually to the general education of the students and to provide them with a functional knowledge of the basic sciences.

The Fairmont General Hospital School of Nursing is approved by the American College of Surgeons and the American Medical Association. It is also accredited by the West Virginia State Board of Examiners for Registered Nurses and the National League for Nursing.

BLAZERS Susonne Hughes, President; Rochel Whoolery, Vice-President; Elaine Germont, Secretary-Treasurer.

BLAZERS

Blazers, Senior Women's Honorary, was organized in 1947. To be elected as a member of the Blazers is a distinction highly honored by every girl of Fairmont State College.

Each year outstanding senior girls are elected to this honorary women's organization. Blazers is based on the qualities of scholarship, leadership, loyalty, and integrity. In addition to these requirements, candidates must have earned at least a 2.85 average by the end of the fall term of their junior year.

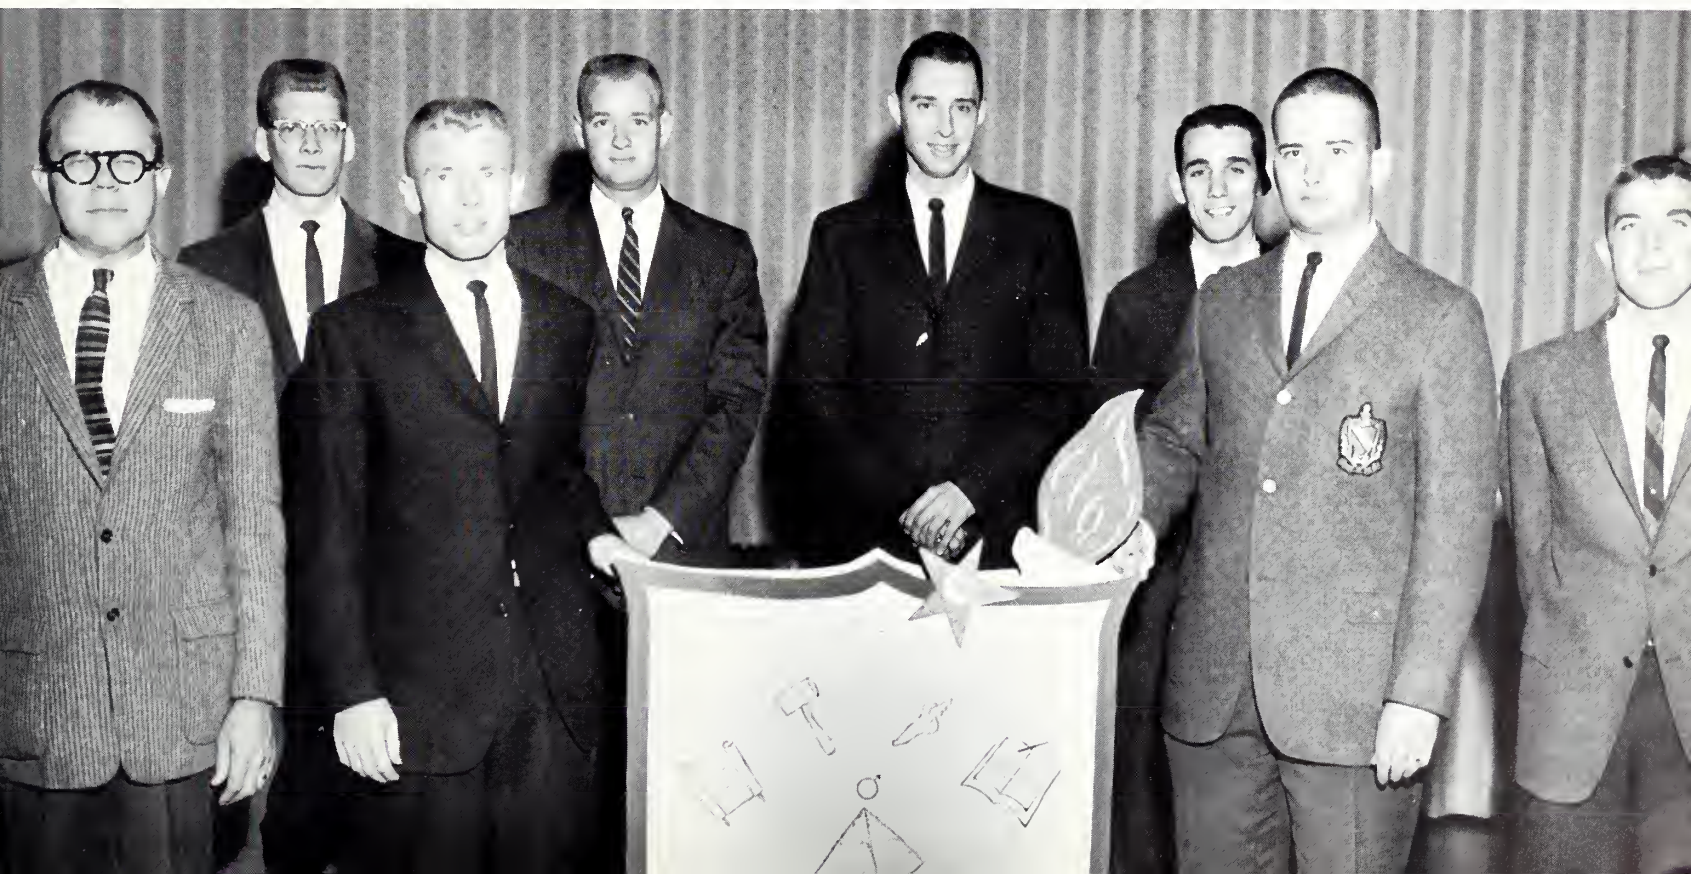

The blazers sponsor the Big and Little Sister Program, which is designed to assist the freshmen women in adjusting to college life, and with the Pyramid Society sponsor the annual Honor Assembly.

PYRAMID SOCIETY

The purposes of the Pyramid Society are the recognition of the most representative men in all phases of college life, to bring together members of the faculty and student body of the institution on a basis of mutual interest, understanding, and helpfulness. The ultimate goal of the society shall be affiliation with a nationally recognized honor society.

The qualifications are scholarship, honor, fellowship, character, and leadership. Scholarship is the primary consideration for membership. The minimum requirements are: one full academic year of residence, rank in the highest twenty-five percent among male students in his class, to be based upon the whole preceding academic record, and a mass total of fifteen points according to the point system.

WHO'S WHO

Each year Fairmont State College honors a select few by naming them to Who's Who. They must have held some responsible office while in school, have given unselfish help to the school, and have good qualities of citizenship and character. They are also expected to be a credit to the school and to themselves in years to come. Students are selected by an impartial council of seven juniors and sophomores and six faculty members once a year. Those chosen are then listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities and given certificates on recognition day.

COUNSELORS

FRESHMEN COUNSELORS' Freshman Week is the time of action for the hard working group. Their membership includes the five Student Council elected officers, and all past counselors who are in good standing concerning leadership, citizenship, and scholarships. The rest of the quota is open to anyone in the student body who qualifies. The final selection is based upon, academic standing, leadership qualities, character, citizenship, and school service.

ALPHA ALPHA ALPHA

ALPHA LAMBDA SIGMA

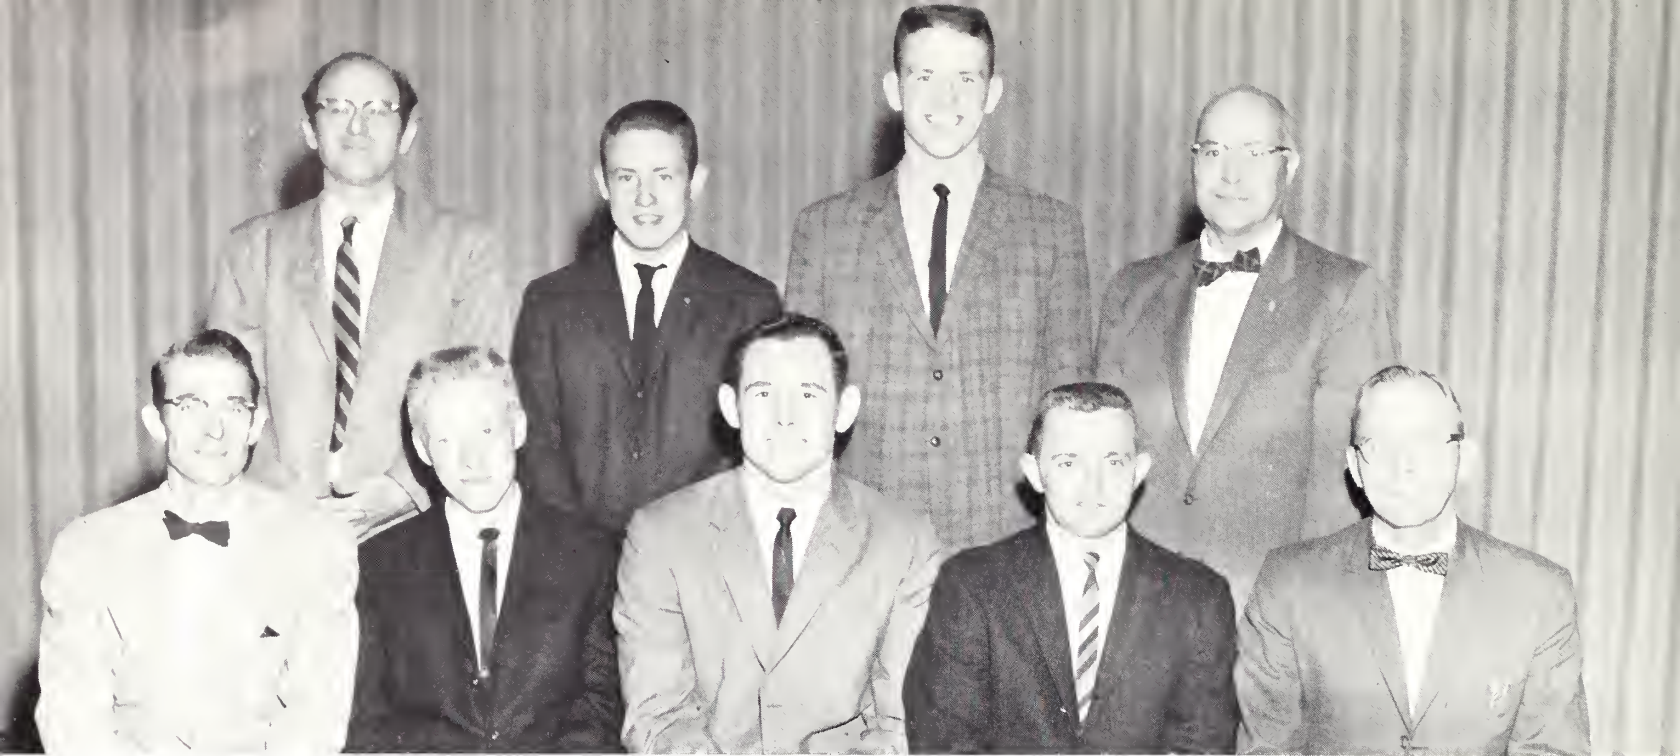

Founded October 22, 1958 by the members of the Business Department and students of Business Administration. The Alpha Alpha Alpha Business Honorary was organized to promote interest in the study of business at Fairmont State College, to promote a more cordial and amiable relationship among the members, and to encourage and recognize a high standard of scholarship in business subjects. The honorary's functions consist of dinner meetings at which a member of management or labor speaks before the group, this acquaints the student with the type of people he will be working with in the future and creates a better relationship between the college and business students and leaders of management and labor throughout the area.

The Letterman's club, Alpha Lambda Sigma, was originated in 1830. The constitution was revised in 1956 to include members of all intercollegiate athletics. The coaches of each sport will decide on who a letterman will be. In major sports the participant must appear in half of the contest to qualify as a letterman. In individual sports the participant must earn a set number of points to qualify. Faculty advisor is Deacon Duvall.

MORROW HALL

Morrow Hall, women's dormitory was completed in the fall of 1922. It was named for Mrs. N.R.C. Morrow, a highly respected teacher in the English department. In 1958 two new wings were added to the dormitory plus the remodeling of the college cafeteria, which is a part of Morrow Hall. It is capable of housing 122 women students. As Mrs. Pearl Brown, the house mother, says, "Morrow Hall is the women students home away from home."

PENCE HALL

Pence Hall, men's dormitory, derived its name from the late Dr. J. W. Pence, one-time president of Fairmont State College. It was through his efforts which made possible the building of this dormitory by federal loan. Pence Hall was completed in January, 1959, and is capable of housing 132 men. It offers many facilities for the men including a spacious lounge and a large parking area. The men have set up their own government and a Pence Hall Club where they plan many of their social functions.

ELEMENTARY TEACHING

The education of teachers of Fairmont State College is designed to utilize the cooperative functions of the several subject matter areas and the departments of professional education. The philosophy of the college is that adequate preparation for teaching requires rich and comprehensive experiences in that area of general education, a reasonable degree of concentration in the subject matter fields, and the development of certain attitudes, skills, and understandings which characterize effective teaching.

SECONDARY TEACHING

The training of teachers for the junior and senior high schools of the State has been one of the principle objectives of F.S.C. since its founding. The philosophy of the college is that adequate preparation for teaching requires rich comprehensive experiences in the area of general education, a reasonable degree of concentration in two subject matter fields, and the development of certain attitudes, skills, and a program of professional education designed to meet the understandings, which make for effective teaching. There is needs of the prospective teacher in each of the curriculums. (A, C and non-academic)

Student teaching is required in all curricula. One semester of the senior year is used to schedule a block of approximately 15 semester hours of professional courses. Seven of the 15 semester hours is devoted to student teaching. The student does practice teaching in his major and minor areas of concentration. This is done in the junior and senior high schools of Marion and Harrison Counties. The directed teaching is a daily assignment for a full day, five days a week, for approximately 9 weeks. The student teacher is expected to assume other duties of supervising teachers.

The requirements for admission to the "Professional Block" are stated in the various college bulletins.

EDITOR'S PAGE

As we send this third quarter of the yearbook to the publisher, we can't help but pause and reflect on what means we intended this book to accomplish. We hope that for the staff, it will be a means of satisfaction for their hours of hard work. We hope, that for the students, it will be an inclusive summary of the year's activities. And for the faculty and alumni, we hope that the 1962 MOUND will be a clear reminder of the past.

We want to express our deep felt appreciation to all those who have in any way helped in this yearbook's production . . . to the staff for their many hours and errands . . . to our faculty advisor, Earl N. Straight . . . to the photographers, David Springer and William Pulice of Photacrafters, Inc. . . . and lastly to the American Yearbook Company and its representative Mike Pasey for their advice.

We sincerely hope that you enjoy this, the 1962 edition of the MOUND.

TOURING CHOIR

The Touring Choir under the direction of Jaye E. Robinson is an organization that is very new. This choir is made up of 40 select voices. They try out for the privilege of participating. This group went on tour Dec. 17-20. They did a concert in the Rotundo of the Senote Building in Woshington, D.C., and on the way back to the college on the hill they performed for Romney High and Grade school and Keyser High and Grade School. This group is the beginning of a touring choir in F.S.C. and will go on many important tours representing our school in the future.

Alpha Delta Chi local sorority was founded at Fairmont State College on December 15, 1929. It was recognized as the fourth social sorority founded on the campus.

Many of the sisters of Alpha Delta Chi hold high offices on campus and many have been fraternity queens and sweethearts. The activities of the sorority are numerous. At Homecoming, it participates by building a float and by sponsoring a reception for the alumnae before the Homecoming dinner. It takes part in the annual Song Fest, and gives a dessert for the seniors elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. In the spring it holds the annual spring formal and names a "Campus King." It also chooses this time to honor their mothers and fathers at the annual Parent-Daughter Banquet. Near the end of the school year, the sisters attend a camp for a week-end.

This year Alpha Delta Chi opened a sorority house, the only one in existence at this time. It houses ten girls.

Delta Zeta Sorority was founded on October 24, 1902 at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio by six young women. As of September, 1961, Delta Zeta has 135 chapters, 216 alumnae chapters and a membership of approximately 43,000.

Delta Zeta's national philanthropic program is known as "Adventures in Friendship" and it consists of assisting with the work of Gallaudet College, Washington, D.C., the only college in the world for deaf people, and adaptation of patients from Carville, the only hospital in the United States for the treatment of Hansen's disease. The local chapter also has a project of providing entertainment for the patients at the Veteran's Hospital at Clarksburg.

Nationally Delta Zeta has many famous members and a few of these are Edith Head, Twentieth Century Fox dress designer; Gail Patrick Jackson, executive producer of the TV show "Perry Mason," and Maureen Neuberger, United States Senator from Oregon.

The Sigma Sigma Sigma National Social Sorority was established on April 20, 1898, at Farmville State Normal School, presently Longwood College, in Farmville, Virginia.

Locally the Alpha Kappa Chapter appeared on campus on May 30, 1930. Since that date the Sigmas have participated in many services on the local as well as the national level. Christmas gifts are provided for the needy children of Marion County, and money is collected annually by the Sigmas for numerous fund raising drives. Nationally, the "Sigma Serves Children" social service is focused on the pediatrics section of the North Carolina Memorial Hospital at Chapel Hill. This Robbie Page Memorial Fund is close to the hearts of every Sigma, for little Robbie, who died of polio several years ago, was the only son of our former national president.

Annually the Sigmas hold the following activities; the Pledge Tea, the Founders' Day Banquet, one or more open dances, the Christmas party, the spring formal and spring camp.

ABOUT SIGMA PI

This is the first appearance of Fairmont's youngest fraternity in the pages of the MOUND; hence we take this opportunity for a brief introduction and history. In early March of 1961, representatives of Sigma Pi National Fraternity of the United States visited the campus of several West Virginia schools in hopes of initiating the first colony in this state. Leading independents in the personages of John Frye, Eugene Walter, and Raymond Shadis were contacted and the base for a colony at Fairmont State was laid.

A nucleus of men interested in a new type of fraternity gathered and held meetings long into the night to discuss its aims and principles. The aims evolved were to build a social brotherhood based on voluntary unity and personal freedom from pressure to conform to any social, political, or scholastic image or boundries except those cast by the basic principles of the group.

Those principles are the following: To seek maturity, that is, to live by love, reason, and faith, and to show respect for the lives, aims, and rights of others. To seek honesty with ourselves and with others; to neither embellish nor to restrict the truth so as to divert its potential, and to establish license for the expression of opinions within the group. — To seek humility, indiscrimination, and justice in dealing with persons, ideas, or material subjects which are new, or which we do not fully understand.

The Fairmont colony of Sigma Pi became a reality on April 13, 1961, when thirteen men were formally pledged. This was followed by a series of social and expansion activities which climaxed with the initiation of the first six brothers of Sigma Pi at Fairmont State in ceremonies held at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia. This was followed by a semester of full activity, highlighted by several social and money-raising events and a spirited drive to put into practice our aims and principles.

Sigma Pi National Fraternity was founded at Vincennes University in 1897, making it the oldest fraternity founded west of the Allegheny Mountains. Sigma Pi now boasts chapters at seventy-three of the finest universities and colleges in the United States.

Sigma Tau Gamma was born of the desires and cooperation of a few men who were attending the summer session of Central Missouri State College in 1920. On June 28, 1920, a larger group was called together to discuss the formation of the fraternity. Further progress was uninterrupted and June 28 is accepted as the date of founding.

The active members and several alumni of Kappa Psi Xi, a local fraternity at Fairmont State College became Xi chapter on March 23, 1929.

Thirty-five years ago an organization of up-standing young men was granted a charter by Fairmont State Normal School. Dr. Rosier seeing the fine qualities of the fraternal organization granted this charter on the seventh day of March nineteen hundred twenty six — thus establishing the first fraternity on the campus. The Greek name given to this fraternity was Tau Beta Iota, better known as T.B.I.

Tau Beta Iota was organized for the purpose of creating school spirit and for bringing together fellows in the school to uplift the social activities of Fairmont State Normal School. "Always true-blue to our school" was the motto. It is also the aim of TBI to create a better understanding between the faculty and the students. The members of this fraternity are not only popular students, but also are outstanding in school activities and athletics.

SOCCKER TEAM

The Fairmont State College soccer team compiled a record of four wins, three losses, and one tie.

Seniors on the team include Tony Schinto, Skip Manley, Phil Colangelo, Joe Wilson, Bill Tomlinson, John Parker, Ron Wolfe, and Brady Moore.

Tony Schinto led the booters to their fine record by scoring 11 goals. Schinto was followed in the goal column by Parker and Tomlinson with two goals each and Pete Tomaino and Terry White scored one goal each.

'Pappy' Cole

Mr. Robert S. "Pappy" Cole has been with the soccer team since its inception into the Fairmont State athletic program four years ago.

In the four years that soccer has been on the hill, "Pappy" has guided his boys to a record of ten wins, eight losses, and four ties. This is an excellent record considering that many of the teams that are on the Falcon schedule have had soccer in their program for a number of years. Best wishes to Coach "Pappy" Cole in the seasons to come for continued success in Fairmont's newest sport.
